EVOLUTION OF NCs AND REJECTS RELATED TO FOREIGN MATTER FOR SWC AND EWHU IN 2010

EVOLUTION OF NCRs RELATED TO FOREIGN MATTER SINCE 2009 FOR NEUCHÂTEL:

[Linéaire = Linear]

TYPE OF FOREIGN MATTER AT THE SOURCE OF NCRs, SWC + EWHU IN 2010:

Type of particles related to 2010 NCRs
SWC + EWHU

Note: Metallic are related to the TVT needle problem

2.1) ONLY FOR EWHU:

Type of particles related to 2010 NCRs
EWHU

Note: Metallic are related to the TVT needle problem

2.2) ONLY FOR SWC US

Type of particles related to 2010 NCRs
SWC US

2.3) SWC EMEA No NCRs IN 2010

3.) EDOC0161 EWHU 2010:
 (DOES NOT REVEAL THE TYPE OF FOREIGN MATTER)

EDOC0161: Evolution of foreign matter rejects in 2010

3.2) EDOC0161 SWC

(SWC US WITH DELAY SINCE APRIL)

EDOC0161: Evolution of foreign matter rejects in 2010

(SWC US Delayed since April)

CONCLUSIONS:

- A big spike in NCRs in March showed the indoor Foreign Matter problem.
- The main source is human for all types of NCRs (In process/complaint/Raw material)
- Indoor component rejects (according to EDOC161) are stable in 2010.
- According to the number of NCRs and the EDOC0161, SWC US is more sensitive to particles (or dirt) than SWC EMEA.

CERTIFICATE OF TRANSLATION

STATE OF NEW YORK §

§

COUNTY OF NEW YORK §

Steven J. Albert, being duly sworn, deposes and says:

1. I am employed as an Account Executive for LanguageWorks, a professional translation firm providing translation services since 1993. I have personal knowledge of all the facts stated herein.
2. Attached to this Affidavit is a translation from French into English made by LanguageWorks of ETH.MESH.13907354-13907355.
3. LanguageWorks only utilizes the services of language professionals who have passed our stringent testing process, which involves a subject matter and language-specific test translation that is reviewed by trusted linguists. Less than 6% of applicants pass. In addition, our language professionals must have a minimum of 5 years' professional translation experience or an applicable degree from an accredited institution. In addition, for all translations, including this one, LanguageWorks uses three qualified linguists: a professional translator; an editor to double-check for style and content; and a proofreader to review all text for completeness. Translations made through our processes set forth above are regularly accepted into evidence in New York State courts.
4. On the basis of the foregoing process and quality control procedures, I certify that the attached is an accurate translation of the original.

Steven J. Albert

SUBSCRIBED AND SWORN TO before me this twenty-first day of October, 2015.
